General Local News.
LYCOURGUS BARRETT, LOCAL EDITOR.
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1876.

Crow-K, has become unfashionable since the wet weather set in.
Do not fail to read the new advertisements in another column.

REV. MR. SCOBEE, agent for the Warren Male College, is spending a few days in town.

MRS. MANSFIELD ROWE, Greenville, Ky., is visiting the family of W. L.
Rowe of this city.

MORE rain fell last Sunday than on any other day during the past month.

MISS ELLIS TAYLOR and Bettie Cook, were in town during conference last week.

MISS AGGIE FOSTER, No Creek, was the guest of the family of Rev. W. W.
Cook, during Conference last week.

MESSRS. F. W. GRIFFIN and Wm.
W. BRIGGS, of Elizabethtown, Ky., are visiting friends and relatives at this place.

MRS. SAM'L. H. HAYCRAFT, and Mrs. Stricker, of Louisville, Ky., are visiting the family of A. L. Morton of this place.

MISS FLORENCE STEVENS and Luella Austin, Beaver Dam, were among the visitors attending the District Conference, last week.

The business prospects of our town are beginning to brighten up a little, and the happy smiles on the faces of our merchants are truly pleasant to contemplate.

THERE are more business houses in Hartford, than any other town in Kentucky, of the same size, and our merchants are the most affable and obliging business men to be found anywhere.

MISS BETTIE BRIGGS, who has been visiting relatives in Louisville and Bowling Green, for a year past, returned home a few days ago.

MONSTROSITIES in the shape of chickens with three legs are becoming quite common; but did any of our contemporaries ever see one leg with three chickens? No, nor neither did we.

THIS is the poorest year for big snake stories, that ever the American journals had to contend with. Couldn't our Tennessee friends make a beginning? We don't want it too large, say twenty or thirty feet and we'll feel satisfied.

THE half sunshine, half tears weather of the past week has kept our farmers alternating between hope and fear, but there is now an appearance of it settling for good. If so, the growing crops are all right yet, and the harvest waiting on the sickle.

VOCAL music resounded from the M. E. church, at almost every hour of the day, all last week; and to prove the poet's assertion that "music hath charms," the sweet voices of the singers managed to charm our devil such an extent, that everything he touched turned to "pie".

WE would call the attention of those in want of anything in the fancy or staple grocery line, to the advertisement of W. C. Morton, in this week's issue. Mr. Morton has a large and varied stock of the very best quality of family groceries, which he will offer at very reasonable figures. Give him a call and we guarantee that you will leave perfectly satisfied.

MR. T. J. BARRETT, living at Barrett's ferry, this county, brought to our office a very interesting collection of ancient Indian relics, consisting of arrow heads, spear heads and other curiosities which we are enabled to prof. C. J. Norwood, of the State Geological Survey.

The New Bell.
The new bell for the M. E. Church, came to hand last Wednesday, and now hangs high in the belfry of that institution. Talk about Independence Hall and its famous bell of liberty; but our citizens are prouder of their reconstructed church edifice and its new bell than the good people of the Quaker city ever can be of that relic of the Revolution. Many were the anxious ears bent to catch the first of metallic music that floated from its iron tongue, and when at length the clear rounded notes came swelling on the balmy summer air, the hearts of our worthy citizens went out to meet the musical sound and each rejoiced in having at least one object that is a credit to our village. It hangs now, and long may its voice be heard calling the wanderer home to the path of duty and bringing back to his delighted mind the innocent days of his happy childhood, when the peal of the old village bell lent additional charms to the happy hours passed in the grey old church from which mayhap he has parted forever; and long may its brass lips be hushed from sounding that solemn dirge which speaks of the fate that awaiteth us all as dwellers on this earthly sphere.

No Place Like Home.
Just twelve years ago, last Wednesday, James Hayes (col.) left his old master who lives in Grayson county, to push his fortune among his free colored brethren of the far South.
After going through the war a year in the capacity of cook, James was cast adrift in Savannah, and according to his own accounts had a hard struggle for existence. Last Wednesday, on the anniversary of his leave-taking, James made his appearance at the house of his former master, ragged sore of foot and hungry. He got a hearty welcome from the family and every kindness was shown to make him feel that no animosity for the past existed in the minds of any of the family.
James says he has often longed for the good old times that's past, and now he has got back to old Kentucky, he's going to stay there till he hangs up de fiddle an' de bow forever.

WE received a very interesting letter from Camp Jim Ned, Colorado, Texas, but for want of space, we were unwillingly forced to omit it in this issue. The writer records a case of unprovoked lynching at Brownwood, which actually disgraces the Lone Star State. The victim was a young man named Reese, who had recently moved from Highland, Ohio. Being a sober, steady young man, no cause can be assigned for his murder. H.
B. Yarbrough, constable, W. S. Tuttle, mayor, and David Breckenridge, marshal, all of Brownwood, are charged as being implicated in the outrage, and are now standing their trial with all the evidence against them, and a fair prospect for reaping the reward of their lawlessness.

JOHN NEWCOMB, living four miles from town on the Hartford and Hawes-ville road, was getting low in his stock of poultry, through some degrading pirate of the night. John proceeded to try the effects of strychnine on the thief, and a few mornings since his efforts were rewarded by finding a large specimen of the owl family quietly stretched out in the slumber of death.
John was satisfied, and proceeded to measure his owlship which he assures us measured from tip to tip, four feet eight inches. Big wasn't it?

EVERYBODY is going to the Grand Centennial Barbecue to be given by Messrs. Canan & Moore, at Bean's White Sulphur Springs, in Ohio county, on the 1st day of July, 1876. The candidates for Congress, Criminal Judge and Sheriff are especially invited to be present and speak upon that occasion. They will be there. The Graggers will have a procession there on that day. Messrs. Canan & Moore, are making great preparations and will have an abundance of good things prepared to eat.

THE most remarkable success in mole hunting attended the efforts of an ex-printer, one day last week.
Those undermining pests had taken a fancy to our friends potato patch, and he in self defence determined on a war of extermination. By patient watching and dexterity in the use of the hoe, he was rewarded in two hours by the capture of twenty-three. He thinks the prospects for "taters" are better than they were. Who can beat it?

E. SMALL, one of our most enterprising and energetic dry goods merchants, started East, after a mammoth stock of merchandise in his line, on Monday last. His absence is supplied by the obliging and gentlemanly clerk, Messrs. T. Larkin Griffin and Jack Foreman, who will be found behind the counter, ready to dispose of all manner of dry goods at the lowest possible prices.

Grayson Springs.
This popular place of resort for the invalid, and those wishing rest from the busy world without, has been opened to the public at greatly reduced rates. Grayson Springs are situated among the wild but picturesque hills of old Grayson, and for beauty of surroundings, and rural enjoyment mixed to suit the tastes of the dwellers of the cities, with every kind of innocent amusement, the Springs cannot be excelled anywhere. The healing power of the waters, can be attested to by hundreds of invalids, who have received new life, from a sojourn of a few months at these life giving Springs. Read advertisement in this issue.

A Grand Barbecue.
A grand Barbecue will be given at Fairview Church on the Cromwell and Litchfield road, on Saturday, July 15, 1876. John Wile, of Cromwell, will furnish the fancy articles, such as: Confectioneries, Lemonades, Ale, Beer and everything suitable for the occasion. The tables will be furnished with everything that is palatable, that is, such as the country can afford. The Graggers of the neighboring Lodges will assemble and have a grand procession. The candidates for Sheriff and Criminal Judge, will address the people on that day. One and all are invited to attend. The undersigned are making preparations for the attendance of a great many ladies. Strict order on the grounds will be required, and the same carried out.
JOHN WILE,
ABEDNEGO BAZE, } PROP'rs.

Big Invention.
Lloyd, the famous map man, who made all the maps for General Grant and the Union army, certificates of which he published, has just invented a way of getting a relief plate from steel so as to print Lloyd's map of American Continent—showing from ocean to ocean—on one entire sheet of bank note paper, 40x50 inches large, on a lightning press, and colored, sized and varnished for the wall so as to stand washing, and mailing anywhere in the world 30 cents, or unvarnished for 25 cents. This map shows the whole United States and Territories in a group, from surveys to 1876 with a million places on it, such as towns, cities, villages, mountains, lakes, rivers, streams, gold mines, railway stations, &c. This map should be in every house. Send 30 cents to the Lloyd Map Company, Philadelphia, and you will get a copy by return mail.—[New York Illustrated Christian Weekly.

Ohio must be the healthiest county in the State, as she can boast of more aged inhabitants than any of her sister counties. On Saturday last we had the pleasure of meeting on our streets Mr.
Alexander Nicholson, living ten miles from town. Mr. Nicholson is ninety-eight years old and looks hale and beardy, and apparently is good for a full score of years yet. He was a soldier of the war of 1812, and is now drawing pensions for his services in helping to make the British lion bite the dust at that eventful period of our national history. We are about to publish a series of sketches of the early pioneers of Ohio county, and communications or information on this subject will be thankfully received.

He was walking along glancing at the blue above and humming, "I want to be clothed in white," when directly he collided with a colored gentleman, carrying a bucketful of white wash. The little curse-word he uttered, like unto Toby's oath, may be overlooked as the milky fluid settled itself over his fine casimere suit, and before he got to the first corner he was clothed like the angels.

THROUGH a mistake in our last issue, we stated that the Barbecue under the auspices of Messrs. Wile & Baize, at Fairview church on the Cromwell and Litchfield road, would come off on July the 12th. The 15th of July is the day set apart for the proposed good time, and those who miss attending, shall never regret it but once, and that shall be all their lives.

WE advertised for a dog fight a week ago, and sure enough the obliging canines, came right under our window to show us a sample of Gross Allen mirthfulness. It was exciting, but the big "yaller dog" got whipped, and we re-lit our corn cob pipe, as with head down and tail between his legs he silently trotted from our presence.

HARTFORD, KY., June, 28th.
Editor Herald:
Your issue of the 21st inst. contained a communication in reply to one from Litchfield, Ky., approving a proposition by the latter that there be a re-union of my pupils, and requesting my views upon the subject.
I could not do otherwise than approve the very complimentary proposition, but am compelled to say that I am not prepared at the present to name a specific day for the proposed re-union. So soon, however, as circumstances will permit me, I will announce the time when it will be contemplated.
I feel profoundly grateful for the evidence of esteem which the articles alluded to evince for me; and I assure my friends that I devoutly pray that the day may be far distant when "de-cay's effacing fingers" shall obliterate their names from the tablet of my memory.
W. B. HAYWARD.

Owensboro District Conference.
The District Conference of the M.
E. Church South was held in our town Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday last, E. M. Crow, of Owensboro, presiding elder. The district was represented by the following named ministers: Dr. J. B. Cottrell, Owensboro station; Wilson Williams, Yel-lington circuit; T. G. Fallin, Owensboro circuit; S. H. Lovelace, Hawsville station; J. W. Taylor, Lewisport circuit; R. D. Bennett, Livermore circuit, and W. W. Cook, Hartford circuit.

The opening address was delivered on Thursday night by Dr. J. B. Cottrell, and listened to by a large and appreciative audience. The eloquence of the Reverend Doctor on that occasion far surpassed anything ever before heard in our midst.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the attendance was large, and the meeting passed off pleasantly to all.

In connection with the above we would mention the Sunday School meeting as part of the programme. Goshen, No Creek, Liberty and Hartford were well represented, and it is due to the teachers of the respective schools to state that the training and good conduct of the scholars was a credit to their efforts in a good cause. The singing was admirable, and many an aged heart beat responsive to the clear, joyous notes of the youthful singers. Taking all together, it was the most pleasant assemblage that has convened in Hartford for a number of years.

Notice.
Persons knowing themselves indebted to me either by note or drug store account are again requested to come forward and settle up. My books are in the hands of Mr. Z.
Wayne Griffin, who is authorized to collect for me. Mr. J. E. Fogle, is also authorized, and will sue when it is necessary.

Nature's Remedial Agents.
It is said that for every disease that effects suffering humanity, nature has provided a remedy, and all that man has to do is to discover these remedial agents and apply them to their appropriate ailments. These are mostly found in the vegetable kingdom, and root, bark, herbs, grains, and other simple and harmless ingredients are more effective than any of the mineral poisons used so freely by many physicians. The celebrated Dr.
Rudolf, in the SEVEN SEALS or GOLDEN WONDER, has compounded a vegetable remedy peculiarly adapted for a wide range of diseases, combining as it does the curative properties of a great number of the most effective roots, herbs and barks. For pains and aches it has never been equaled.
